

UNESCO-GLOBAL EDUCATION MONITORING REPORT 2016 – Austrian Launch

Education for people and planet: CREATING SUSTAINABLE FUTURES FOR ALL

Presentations & Panel Discussions

The GLOBAL EDUCATION MONITORING (GEM) REPORT 2016 monitors progress in education within the new SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS (SDGs) framework adopted by the UN-General Assembly in 2015. Goal 4 of the 17 SDGs commits all countries to “ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all”. A panel of experts will discuss the 2016 GEM report's main conclusions and recommendations focussing on two different aspects:

“EDUCATION, SDGS AND DEVELOPMENT STRATEGIES”

29 November 2016 | 18:00–20:00

C3 – Centre for International Development,
Sensengasse 3, 1090 Vienna

“INCLUSIVE EDUCATION FOR ALL AND THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOAL 4”

30 November 2016 | 16:45–19:30

Audimax, Centre for Translation Studies,
Gymnasiumstraße 50, 1180 Vienna

The Austrian launch is co-organised by the Austrian Federal Ministry of Education, the Austrian Foundation for Development Research (ÖFSE), the Austrian Commission for UNESCO and the Department of Development Studies, the Department of Education and the Centre for Teacher Education of the University of Vienna and the Plattform Globale Bildungsgerechtigkeit
