

EuroMemo 2018:

Can the EU still be saved? The implications of a multi-speed Europe

Werner Raza
EuroMemo Group Steering Committee

What is the EuroMemo?

- Annual report of the European Economists for an Alternative Economic Policy in Europe (EuroMemo Group), a pan-European network of progressive economists founded in 1995. First report appeared in 1997.
 - Aim of group is to contribute to a model of European integration, that is promoting full employment with good work, social justice with an eradication of poverty and social exclusion, ecological sustainability, and international solidarity.
 - Activities of group: (i) annual conference in September, (ii) annual report, (iii) outreach and dissemination.
 - Report consists of three parts:
 1. Survey of the current economic, social and ecological situation of the European Union
 2. Empirically and analytically substantiated criticism of the orientation of politics on the European level
 3. Alternative policy proposals
- ➔ Report is regularly endorsed by 300+ economists and social scientists

Contents of EuroMemo 2018

- 1. Macroeconomic policies: debt overhang and sustainable growth & development
- 2. Monetary and financial policies: mounting problems
- 3. Inequality and social crisis
- 4. The EU in a fragmenting international order
- 5. Alternative visions for socio-ecological transformation

The EuroMemo 2018 is available as:

Print edition in English:

Print edition in German:

PDF download and order at:

<https://www.transform-network.net/de/publications/detail/euromemo-2018/>

PDF download and order at:

http://www.sozialismus.de/vorherige_hefte_archiv/supplements/liste/detail/artikel/euromemo-2018/

Digital editions of the EuroMemo 2018 can also be downloaded at:

www.euromemo.eu